

After some time on the Web, we've decided to upgrade my author web site to provide more and better content to my readers. In addition to more timely information about my activities and projects, I am planning to include a little from everything I've written and direct links to my regular newsletter and blog.

I am the author of four science fiction novels published by Tor Books – the Dark Wing series, which has been compared to the writing of Orson Scott Card, Frank Herbert, David Weber, and J.R.R. Tolkien. It has been published in English and German, and has appeared in Russian. For information about these books, look in the Works section of the site.

My new novel, A Song In Stone, deals with the mystery of Rosslyn Chapel and the secrets of the Templars. I have added a glossary for the book in the Song In Stone

area; please check it out.

I have been a writer all of my life, and a full-time professional since 2001. On my web site, you can learn about my background, read about my current projects, and even buy my books from my bookstore (associated with Amazon.com).

I maintain a weblog, Stone of Remembrance, with commentary and items I find interesting, and I also send out a newsletter to keep my readers informed. I also am active on Facebook, and there is a direct feed on the left side of the home page to keep you up to date.

Feel free to browse around the site, and please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions for me.

Thanks for stopping by, and thanks for reading.
